

SITTING IN JUDGMENT

Justice Linn Deals out Dabs of Mercy and Justice.

There was a colloquy of Nations in the Justice Rooms yesterday—a Negro and Indian, a white man and a Chinaman represented the Nations, and Judge Linn meted out justice to these four representatives of sin and misdemeanor in his characteristic manner.

The Negro, Chas. Anderson by name, was charged with stealing a shotgun from an Indian, and as sufficient evidence seemed to be laid at his door to warrant a trial, he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff, and his trial set for Monday next at ten o'clock.

Abbott Coffin, Indian, in a drunken and disorderly condition attempted to do up Chinatown yesterday, and incidentally a few Celestials and a stray officer, but he landed in the clutches of the law, and was sent over the river for a spell.

George Hawkins, pale face, had imbibed of too much China gin, and disturbed the peace of the community to such an extent that Judge Linn decided he was better off in the cooler for ten days.

After all this business, the good old Justice felt slightly under the weather, and was duly thankful that no other miscreant turned up to be harshly dealt with.

Next Bill at the Opera House.

The premier of a new play is always an interesting announcement, especially when it is by a dramatist of acknowledged ability, who has given other successes to the stage, but more important than this is that the production is made under the supervision of a manager well-known for his liberality in engaging the best available talent and presenting it with every scenic and costume embellishment. "At the Old Cross Roads" is the romantic title of this new play. It is from the fertile and versatile pen of Mr. Hal Reid. "At the Old Cross Roads" is credited with being an immense story of Southern life. The chief character is "Parepa," an octocon, and around her tragic history are interwoven the characters of "Anabelle Thornton," the heiress of Magnolia Grove; Dayton Thornton, its master; Tom Martin of the Myrtle Fern plantation, the accepted lover of "Anabelle"; Doc Kerr, a speculator who dearly loves "Parepa"; Count DeMony, Young Mississippi; Major Bradley Ferrar, one of the old line; George Chilton, the coroner; Madge Thornton, Dayton Thornton's first daughter, and "Ole Aint Liza," one of the Thorntons. The scenes are laid around Natchez, Miss. "At the Old Cross Roads" will be seen here on Wednesday evening, Nov. 20.

As Young as He Used to Be.

"Say, I am just seventy-one years old today, and am looking for any young chap, don't care who he is, that will do a twenty-five yard sprint with me. Can I beat him? Never got beat in a footrace yet, and seventy-one isn't so old." So said A. T. Rice yesterday, and to emphasize that he meant every word uttered, he executed a rapid fire zigzag step that would do credit to an end man of Haverly's minstrels.

A Favor Acknowledged.

CHAMPION WINS EASY VICTORY

Ruhlin Is Defeated by Jeffries.

LASTED FIVE ROUNDS

Report by Rounds of the Fistic Contest in San Francisco Last Evening.

MECHANICS' PAVILION, San Francisco, Nov. 15.—Ten thousand people assembled in the pavilion to see the big mill. They hailed from points between Vancouver and Mexico, and embraced well-known State officials, members of the judiciary and sporting circles early took possession of high-priced seats.

At 8.15 o'clock Ruhlin arrived, and an uproar ensued. Jeffries entered the pavilion in the midst of the first preliminary and the throng cheered him to the echo.

The first preliminary between Billy Condon and Mike Curtin, an eight-round affair at 140 pounds, was a fast and interesting mill, and ended in a draw.

The second preliminary was between Fields and Welch, in which Welch won in the fourth round.

The betting at ringside steady just before the big struggle, at odds of two to one. A kinesiograph machine caught the fighters in all their attitudes.

Jeffries entered the ring at 9.28 p. m., and Ruhlin appeared at 9.30 p. m. Two minutes after men entered the ring they were announced by Billy Jordan, who then presented referee Harry Corbett.

Defeating cheers greeted the big fighters but an instant later when Police Captain Whitman entered the ring to examine gloves, groans and hisses filled the auditorium. Jeffries in a flaring red sweater, and chewing gum in violent impatience, sat demurely in his corner, while Ruhlin talked earnestly with Denver Ed Martin. On behalf of Tom Sharkey, Tim McGrath challenged the winner of tonight's contest.

Round 2—They clinch, Ruhlin was hooked round neck with left. He accused Jeff of foul fighting, Ruhlin then shot in his right and found Jeff's ribs, following this up with left swing for head. Jeff waxed aggressive. Ruhlin planted right and left to face, rushed, landing on body. The champion led with left and was countered, Ruhlin found Jeff's head and in a short exchange neither had the advantage. The men fought at closer range, Gus again landing on Jeff's face and stopping the latter's attempt to return with strong right. Ruhlin feinted with right and shot straight left on Jeff's nose, but blow was partially blocked. The men were wrestling when the round closed. This was Ruhlin's round.

Round 3—The men come up strong and Ruhlin shot in with right and left which stopped Jeff who elbowed his way back and landed on the Akron man with terrific left to neck. Jeff pursued Gus and swung with both hands. In a rush Jeff landed body blows. Ruhlin again appeals to referee, Gus ducked and was met with straight left. He fainted and came back with a short arm punch. Jeff easily held the advantage, with Gus constantly complaining. Men closed in several times. Ruhlin fighting low and Jeff looking for a chance to land knock-out. Jeff retreated about the ring until the spectators hissed. Round ended with neither man in distress, but with Ruhlin the more worried of the two.

Round 4—After short exchanges at close range, Ruhlin landed on face. He was forced back, and Jeff smiled as Ruhlin again rebuked him. Jeff landed left, blackening Gus' left eye, then pursued him. Fighting at short range and plainly wearing his man down. Jeff swung left and right and missed. Gus lead for the face and Jeff pushed him across the ring. Then the champion walked Gus across the face again and landed a fierce left on his jaw. Ruhlin shot out left, Jeff waded in, whaling Ruhlin left and right. Gus went down and took the count. He came up apparently weak and the gong saved him.

Ruhlin was plainly in greatest distress when the round closed. This round much in Jeffries' favor.

Round 5—Ruhlin wore a distressed expression when he came up. Jeff went in with straight arm blows, but was blocked. Jeff landed light hook to jaw and short left to ribs and then again to the neck with right. Gus went to floor after, and at the count of five staggered to his feet. He ceased fighting and Jeff went in for a knock-out. Ruhlin was utterly dazed and missed wild swings while Jeff threw him against the ropes and a volley followed this in which the champion feazed Gus with lefts to face. Ruhlin ducked and retreated steadily. Jeff followed the advantage and bored in, touching Ruhlin beneath the chin with right and forcing him to ropes. Almost from the beginning of the fight Ruhlin appeared frightened. The fight was practically finished in second round when Jeff landed left hook on jaw that took all the fight out of Ruhlin. Ruhlin claimed that a chance blow in the pit of the stomach rendered him unfit for fighting. His seconds complained bitterly, but Ruhlin insisted that he was the victim of an accident. Jeff walked to Ruhlin's corner and asked him what was the matter, then turned in disgust and proceeded to his dressing room while the spectators rose as one man and cheered the champion while they denounced Ruhlin as a quitter and a faker.

The police tumbled into the ring, stopped two fights in which Corbett, the referee, and officers of the Club were involved. The utmost excitement prevailed, during which Ruhlin made his way out of the ring.

Out of Commission.

Several of the Varsity football players are laid up for repairs. Riordan, Leavitt, Lawrence and Karney are suffering from numerous bruises. Dr. Laughlin expects to have them in readiness for the Utah game.

Gossip About Football Matters.

Renoites will have one more opportunity to see the Varsity eleven play football on Wednesday next, when the Olympic team are to meet the Nevadans on the University campus. It is not definitely known just what the line-up will be for the local team, since there are several of the first eleven players who are either laid up with injuries or otherwise indisposed. But there is no doubt that a good team will be put in the field, and a snappy game played by both contestants.

The Olympics, with the expectation of the Reno tip, have in prospect the addition to its squad of Duden, California's full back, Pringle, a crack tackle; Wamble, Clay and Masters—all adepts where football is concerned. Nevada has plenty of strong material to offset this aggregation.

STEWART VOCIFERATES.

THE Virginia Chronicle publishes a column and a half interview with Senator Stewart in which the "grand old man" opens the flood-gates of his information reservoir for the benefit of the benighted heathens of Nevada who, or rather whose legislatures, have upon several occasions, elected him to the United States Senate under the hallucination that with all of his deviltries he was at least a sound and reliable silver man. This idea he promptly dispels by confessing that from 1892 he had been sailing under false colors, as he names that date when the Democratic party commenced making a "d—d fool" of itself by pushing silver to the front in its national convention. He said that the Silver party was laughed at in the east, but omitted to mention as the probable cause of such eastern mirth, the stupendous joke of that organization twice electing him as a restorer of the metal which he had voted to demote and upon which he expended so much harmless wind for years after he says it was dead. He attributed the prosperity in Nevada to the decline of the Comstock, scorning the stereotyped and hackneyed "McKinley wave" theory, so favored by the lesser lights of the party with which he has filed his petition for reinstatement. He railed against California and the Central Pacific railroad through whose combined influences Nevada had been kept in the background, but omitted to mention any vote he had ever cast which would indicate that his certificate of election was not dated at Sacramento instead of Carson City; nor did he deny the oft repeated charge and self-evident fact that during his entire senatorial career, he has been the most pliant instrument and most obedient servant of the corporation which he now (doubtless by permission) professes to criticize.

The good old man is in favor of irrigation upon general principles but does not explain how he proposes to exploit them. Of course he is opposed to the only proposition that is likely to come before Congress upon that subject—the Newlands bill which he opposes upon the ground, that the government cannot exercise eminent domain, except in selecting sites for post offices and for army and navy purposes, but when asked how it was possible for the government to make such enormous grants of land to the Central Pacific company he wound up the disagreeable topic by remarking, "that is another consideration." He plumed himself upon getting through the Senate a $250,000 irrigation appropriation for Arizona, but with characteristic modesty made no mention of any similar effort in behalf of Nevada.

The venerable Senator is opposed to reciprocity and says "the tariff is all right" meaning of course the Dingley law. It is to be regretted that the interviewer did not ask him how it affected the people of Nevada where not twenty actual residents of the State are directly or indirectly benefitted to the extent of a nickel by any or all of its provisions, while every man, woman and child is taxed for the benefit of the trusts, in increased prices for the necessities of life, aggregating more than the amount of the expense of running the State and county governments. The excellent old gentleman's explanation would doubtless have proved interesting reading matter to Nevada consumers as would his reason for the price of raw wool, with an up to the limit tariff duty, being lower than during the Cleveland administration, attract special attention from the sheep raisers.

It was needless for the reporter to question the Senator as to his position upon the ship subsidy bill. That he is with Hanna in that as in all other steals would go without saying. He touched upon other matters of more or less unimportance, but he said one thing in another interview, which will be received with cheers and applause by the Democrats and Silver party men all over the State. He promised to stump Nevada next fall for the Republican State and Senatorial tickets. It is to be hoped that the Republican leaders will not muzzle him as they did a year ago.

NEWLANDS' STRONG CAND.

"BORAX BILL" STEWART is in Carson for the purpose, it is said, of hatching some scheme with his lately acquired Republican brethren for the defeat of Congressman Newlands for the Senatorship. Which brings to mind that last year William the Odorous came all the way from Washington for the express purpose of defeating Mr. Newlands for re-election to Congress. The result is well known and it will be the same in the election next year. Any ticket which has to bear the odium of being supported by "Borax Bill" Stewart will be crushingly defeated. Any candidate against whom this double-dyed traitor makes an especial fight is sure to win.—Silver State.

If a man may be judged by the enemies he has made, certainly Mr. Newlands' standing in Nevada is an enviable one. The enmity of Stewart commends him perhaps as highly to the honest and intelligent people of the State as the friendship and support of any of his most ardent and reputable supporters. Stewart's negative influence is a power and the Silver party men and Democrats will most earnestly and sincerely hope and pray that he will be permitted to exercise it to its fullest extent, without hindrance from the Republican leaders. His mere presence in the State last year gained Mr. Newlands' hundreds of votes even with his jaw tackle muzzled by the Republican committee, and with that unloosed he will effect more for the fusion State and legislative tickets than a score of the best friendly speakers that could be placed upon the stump.

LI HUNG CHANG just now is being used as a subject for editorial laudation all over the world. He was a foxy old fellow, but what did he ever do for his race? He is not to be placed in the same class with such men as Booker Washington.—Sacramento Bee.

There is a whole lot of truth in the above, independent of the fact that Li Hung Chang never dined with President Roosevelt.

MINING IN THIS STATE

Culled News of Nevada's Most Important Industry.

L. Kimberly, the millionaire mine-owner of Sharon, Penn., has acquired title to valuable copper mines near Ely, White Pine county.

Lincoln county, Nevada, is destined to become one of the richest mining sections of the State. There are quite a number of prosperous camps in the country bordering on the Colorado river, that are soon to be connected by rail with the outside world, all of which will increase their product tenfold.
The ores of these camps is gold-bearing and of a grade that insures big profit in working.—Kingman Miner.

His labors at the property of the April Fool at DeLamar, Nev., completed, James Healey, former superintendent, has returned to town and will identify himself with some of the local camps. During his last month at the April Fool, now controlled by Salt Lake talent, the earnings amounted to nearly $7000, this coming from mill tailings that were piled up by the Wilson crowd, with about 400 tons of crude ore. In the meantime Ernest Godde is preparing to introduce his process of agitation at the plant, and with this the new management is relying on improved results.—Tribune.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents.
Money back if not cured. Sold by S.
J. Hodgkinson, druggist.

SPREADS LIKE WILDFIRE.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves.
Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitude of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson, druggist.

ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY.

From Coopersville, Mich., comes word of a wonderful discovery of a pleasant tasting liquid that when used before retiring by any one troubled with a bad cough always ensures a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough too," writes Mr. S. H. Humberger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption and never found its equal for Coughs and Colds." It's an unrivaled life-saver when used for desperate lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 at S. J. Hodgkinson's.
Trial bottles free.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences.
Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them.
If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. O. Green's reliable remedies at Hodgkinson's drug store.
Get Green's Special Almanac.

GREAT LUCK OF AN EDITOR.

"For two years all efforts to cure Eczema in the palms of my hands failed," writes Editor H. N. Lester, of Syracuse, Kan., "then I was wholly cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's the world's best for Eruptions, Sores and all skin diseases. Only 25c at S.
J. Hodgkinson's, druggist.

PIANOS ON EASY TERMS.

And at prices to suit any one. The prices range from two hundred and twenty-five dollars up—twenty-five dollars down and the balance in ten-dollar monthly installments.

These pianos are all fully guaranteed and have the latest improved action and are the style upright. No one on earth sells better pianos or better-toned pianos, or gives more value for the money than C. J. Brookins. Brook-ins has lived and sold pianos in Reno for thirty years. Why not buy your piano of Professor Brookins, who knows all about pianos and has made them a great study for thirty years?
Call at 224 Virginia street, C. J. Brook-ins' store.

Best in the Market.

Pringle and Carroll have just received a five-barrel consignment of AA Jesse Moore whisky. They also handle accorded all patrons.

A Few Gleaned Paragraphs of Nevada
News.

Big trains are still an every day affair on the V. & T. Yesterday's local was composed of a big train of freight most of it for points south of here.— Appeal.

Charles Fitzgerald, who has been machinist at the DeLamar, Nevada, mines for the past year and a half, has severed his connection with the company.
—Salt Lake Herald.

It is understood that a Carson sportsman has ordered a first-class steam launch for Washoe Lake. A pier and dock will be erected on this end of the lake, where the boat will be stored during her idle hours.

Captain Herman Davis and J. F.
Gignoux, owners of the Nevada Reduction works near Dayton, have shown themselves to be friends of labor, and abreast of the times. Instead of waiting for the strike to come to them, they came to the strike, and have announced a raise in wages of their men to $3 per day. The Virginia and Gold Hill Water Co. is also in line on the same proposition.—Chronicle.

Three Chinamen were arrested this afternoon by Constable LaVoy on a charge of conducting a lottery. Their trial will be held in Justice Court some time tomorrow. The offense with which they are charged is a misdemeanor, and the maximum punishment is $500 fine or six months' imprisonment in the county jail.—Silver State.

Wilson Locklin has received a letter from Louis Kreber, dated Johannesburg, South Africa, October 10, which states that Dennis Sullivan died in the hospital at that place October 8th of miners' consumption. Mr. Kreber says Sullivan told him the day before his death that his hour had come and bid him good-bye. Deceased was formerly a member of Encampment No. 1, I. O. O. F., of this city, where he resided for many years.—Enterprise.

Yesterday's advices from DeLamar, Nev., report the management of the great DeLamar mine now engaged in the sacking of ore, which shows free gold in considerable abundance, and some of which affords a valuation amounting to no less than $1000 per ton. This ore is coming from a two-foot breast in what is now known as the Hog Pen ledge that between walls shows ten feet of milling ore, and that has made a new mine out of the old, from which the fortunate owner has already mined about $13,000,000. To open up the new ledge 250 feet below the present workings a crosscut is being extended from the main workings of the property. That the Hog Pen ledge is an independent one with possibilities as great as the original is being emphasized on every shift and the camp is accordingly happy.—Salt Lake Tribune.

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectively, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please

Tells a Tale About the Cemeteries of Pioche.

"I've been up north, and I've been through the west and I've seen a few things that were corks in their way, but Pioche must have been a world-beater in its day."

This was the declaration of a hotel arrival yesterday afternoon, who blew in after a trip through the Pioche district in search of a good thing in mining. While the object of his search was not attained, he encountered sights that gave him an exalted idea of what the camp might have been when it was in its prime in the years of long ago. "What do you think?" continued the visitor. "In that little place they have three graveyards. I guess the population of those cemeteries combined, adding the living population every way from the deuce. One plot is for white men—that is, for ordinary folk who lived and died like other people. Another is for Chinamen. It stacks up to me that they got away with a good many Chinks in the days of 'ould lang syne' back there. The last one, however, is the limit.

"It is the resting place of the bad men who traveled the pace, made trouble and died with their boots on. The plot is of respectable size, but its occupants are piled in so thick that they must be able to rub elbows. It is a sight that commands respect for Pioche, but I don't want to be around there when Marino blows his horn. Pioche must have gone in on a business basis in getting away with bad men, and I shouldn't wonder if that's what has brought the population down so low."

Building and Loan Talk No. 17.

We do not mean to make an assault on life insurance by any means, for it (life insurance) is a good protection for those who are dependent upon the insurance; but we believe that you can receive this same protection by carrying the best obtainable life insurance at the lowest rates on the ordinary life plan without any endowment features, and then in addition thereto carry a nice block of building and loan stock on the side. Your heirs and executors will then be protected in the event of death, and if you do not die for a few years hence, you can pull down a handsome sum of money at the maturity of your building and loan stock. You thus get protection both ways, and the profits will be radical. Many people, ladies as well as men, do not conscientiously believe in life insurance at all. They argue that all danger of wishing each other evil, which prevails in life insurance, is eliminated from a building and loan investment. You do not run the risk, when investing in our proposition, of having the wife or husband put poison in the coffee, thus killing one or the other off, and after getting the insurance money running away with a handsome man or woman. When one invests on our plan every incentive and motive is a good one. Every member of the family can join hands and co-operate fully to reach the goal and collect their thousands or more dollars. All temptation and bad thoughts are completely destroyed.

If the wife looks at the matter from a purely selfish standpoint alone it would be to her financial detriment, not interest, to kill her husband off. She would evidently groom him well, keep him fat, sleek and strong, so that he could earn enough money to complete their contract. Should she, accidentally or otherwise, put her other half out of the way she would only be again "killing the goose that laid the golden egg." Therefore, husbands, be on the safe side and deposit with us; do not run any risk. Your wives all seem to like our plan and will help you.

Watch for "No. 18."
